Causes of the French Revolution

Understanding the causes of the French Revolution is crucial for comprehending its eruption. These causes can be broadly categorized into economic, social, political, and intellectual factors:

- Economic Hardship: France faced severe financial crises due to war debts, extravagant spending by the monarchy, and poor harvests leading to food shortages and rising bread prices.
- SOCIAL INEQUALITY: The division of society into three estates – the First Estate (clergy), Second Estate (nobility), and Third Estate (commoners) – created significant disparities. The Third Estate bore most of the taxes and had little political power.
- Political Corruption and Absolutism: The monarchy's absolute power, combined with widespread corruption and ineffective governance, fostered discontent among common citizens and reform-minded elites.
- Enlightenment Ideas: Philosophies emphasizing liberty, equality, and fraternity inspired calls for change and challenged traditional authority structures.
- Financial Crisis and Debt: France's involvement in costly wars, including the American Revolution, drained resources, leading to increased taxation and fiscal instability.

Key Events of the French Revolution

The revolution unfolded through a series of pivotal events, each contributing to radical change:

- Estates-General and the Tennis Court Oath (1789): The convening of the Estates-General highlighted the need for reform. The Third Estate broke away, forming the National Assembly and taking the Tennis Court Oath, vowing to create a new constitution.
- Storming of the Bastille (July 14, 1789): Symbolic beginning of the revolution, where revolutionaries stormed the prison to seize weapons and demonstrate against royal tyranny.
- The Great Fear and Peasant Uprisings: Widespread fears and peasant revolts against feudal privileges spread across the countryside.
- Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (1789): Articulated principles of liberty, equality, and fraternity, serving as a foundation for revolutionary ideals.
- Women's March on Versailles (October 1789): Women marched to demand bread and forced the royal family to move to Paris, making them more accountable to the people.
- Constitution of 1791: Established a constitutional monarchy, limiting royal power and creating a legislative assembly.
- Radical Phase and the Reign of Terror (1793-1794): Led by Robespierre, this period saw mass executions of perceived enemies of the revolution.

Major Figures of the French Revolution

Several influential individuals played vital roles in shaping revolutionary events:
